Comments to Evaluator and Employee. Evaluators should discuss the evaluation results with the employee. At a minimum, employees must be given a copy of the evaluation for their own records. Both the evaluator and the employee should sign the evaluation form. The employee signature indicates only that the employee received a copy of the evaluation. It does not necessarily signify employee concurrence. Both employees and evaluators are strongly encouraged to include written comments. At the final evaluation only, after the employee signs the form, the evaluator should give one copy to the employee, retain one copy for department files and forward one copy to IHR as an attachment in a HRFE Administrative transaction.
